Roxanne,

Thanks for sharing these. I will review, but upon first glance it appears you have covered all of the AOC tasks. I am thinking since you all pulled these together, it is probably best that you present status based on your slides, and I focus on answering difficult questions that are likely to come from the audience. I think we will get questioned on why things are taking so long, and we should discuss how we will respond to those types of questions when we talk today.

Thanks

Steve

Lene has put together slides that provides the updates of each section of the AOC. You can use this to talk off. Please review for accuracy. Also attached is a word document of the updates in each section.

I have attached a draft copy of my powerpoint (note I will be using only the first 4 slides) and talking points
